Long-Term Food Supply Kits

Wise Company's extended shelf life entrées and breakfasts are sealed in individual, four serving pouches. They are kept safe and secure by enclosing them in lightweight and compact 5-gallon square plastic containers with a stackable design feature. The buckets are very easy to stack and store; each container is notched on the bottom to ensure stackability. In no more space than a washer and dryer takes up, you can store enough ready-made servings to feed a family of 6 for a full year.

Freeze-Dried and Dehydration Processes

At Wise Company, we take a unique and innovative approach to long-term food storage and emergency preparedness. Our ready-made entrées include both freeze-dried and dehydrated components, depending upon the food component.

Through extensive evaluation, research, and testing, we have combined both freeze-dried and dehydrated products together to ensure optimal taste, texture, and nutritional value. Expensive ingredients such as peas and other vegetables are generally freeze-dried. Other ingredients, like noodles and rice, actually taste better when dehydrated.

Freeze-Dried and Dehydrated Food Advantages

- Maintains its original flavor, shape, color, and texture
- Retains its nutritional value
- Condensed in size
- With nearly all its water extracted, food is extremely light weight
- Adding water quickly and thoroughly reconstitutes food
- Wise customers enjoy peace of mind because of the food's long shelf life

Smart Packaging

Our unique packaging adds value to our meals by protecting them better and making them easier to store and easier to prepare.

- 1. Specialized Packaging: Wise Company ready-made foods are packed in airtight pouches. Our unique packaging process removes the majority of the residual oxygen, preserving our shelf stable foods.
- 2. Mylar Family-size 4-serving Pouch: Our unique packaging also adds incredible value to our products by making it easier to store, eat, and further prolong the shelf life of each individual meal. Instead of using large #10 cans, we package each meal in its own separate mylar pouch, eliminating waste that comes with opening large cans. This eliminates the need to eat enormous amounts of one particular food all at once to prevent rapid spoilage. mylar pouches are, basically, flexible tin cans that gives you the ability to eat what you want, when you want.
- 3. Square, Durable Plastic Container with a Grab and Go Handle: We take the safe-keeping of your food a step further by placing these 4-serving mylar pouches into sealed, compact, 4-gallon, square buckets that are easy to stack and store. Because we do not waste space by using and boxing large #10 cans, Wise food storage is much more compact and takes significantly less space.
- 4. Stackable Design: Each container is notched on the bottom to ensure stackability. In no more space than a washer and dryer takes up, you can store enough ready-made meals to feed a family of 6 for a full year.
- 5. Resealable Pull Tab Lid: Wise's unique bucket contains an easy-to-open, easy-to-close resealable pull tab lid.
